

Statement

I, Andrew Cenicola, was kicked out of the teen class by the Buffalo Church of Christ of Buffalo, N.Y. By the women's ministry leader, evangelists wife Tracy Macaluso. On or around September 4,2003.

The reason she gave me and my parents was that I was always disruptive, rude, hurtful and disrespectful to her and the other teachers and teens in her class. To the point she had to walk out and leave the class, because I was so out of control and unruly.

On the day that she had left the class , I was not even there. I was out of town, while my mother was on her honeymoon.

I was not the reason she had to leave the class as she has claimed.

As far as the class being unruly and out of control that did happen quite often, started by two other teens and then everyone else would joined in, me included.

After classes on September 4,2006, I apologized to Mrs. Macaluso, for being disrespectful to her while she was teaching, her responses was that when I really mean it come back and apologize to her. She did not accept my apology. Jesus said that if you do not forgive others, he will not forgive you.

By the way I was treated by Mrs. Macaluso, her lack of love , unforgiveness , segregation, deceitfullness and harshness. I have lost all faith and desire to seek a relationship with God or to attend church.

I, Andrew Cenicola, give this statement as my recollections of treatment by Mrs. Macaluso of the Buffalo Church of Christ, referenced above and considers these facts to be true.
