If anyone teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, he is conceited and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions and constant friction between men of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain. 1 Timothy 6:3-5

Dear Ms. Chambers:

I am responding in receipt of your letter dated August 15, 2005 requesting financial information from the Portland Church of Christ. Your letter was received on August 23, 2005.

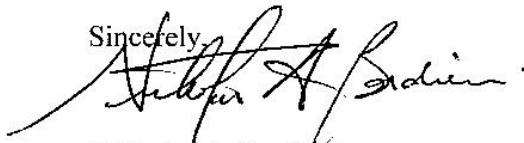

You are correct in your statement that we are required to present paperwork relevant to our status as a 501(c)(3) Corporation under the Internal Revenue Code. Per your letter, we are responding within the requested 30-day time frame.

In the spirit of cooperation, and to fulfill this request, a copy of our IRS Form 1023 – Application for Recognition of Exemption has been included for your review.

Regarding a response to your survey questions, I trust that you will understand that we are under no compulsion or commitment to reveal this information. Due to the sensitive nature of our benevolence requests, and commitments, we politely refuse to answer the survey questions.

If you have any further requests, please feel free to contact me at the address listed below.

Sincerely,

Nicholas A. Bordieri
Chairman, Board of Directors
Portland Church of Christ
